

PUBLIC DAILY LEDGER

SIXTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1897.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "out of the goodness of his heart." A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

Our Christmas Gifts To Our Patrons.

Owing to the generous patronage our friends accorded us this fall, which in plain English means we sold a great many goods, we were enabled recently to close out several large lots of clothing at prices that will make us a little money and save you a good deal.

Today we put on sale 150 well-made and trimmed fashionably-cut dark Oxford Melton Overcoats, sizes 34 to 44, at $3. Today we put on sale 135 fine English black and blue Kersey Overcoats. Some of them are cut long, some of them are cut short, but not as short as the price. They go at $7.75. When you look at them you will see what we mean by the headlines of this advertisement.

Today we put on sale 56 all-wool black Cheviot and Worsted Children's two-piece Suits, sizes 6 to 15-year-old. They are worth at wholesale $4. In our Christmas gift offering sale you get them for $2.40.

The prices for above lots are CASH—spot cash.

As the month progresses watch our advertisements. We are going to do the biggest month's business in the history of our house. For a Christmas gift to your brother or someone else's brother there is nothing more suitable than a nice Smoking Jacket. We have a beautiful line. Call in and see them.

SOCIETY

Mrs. William Duffield Cochran, entertained a coterie of her friends yesterday afternoon from 3 till 6, the function being a tea to honor Miss Sarah Grady of Lebanon, who is a visitor to relatives in our city. The stately old January home was regal in ante-holiday attire, exquisite flowers and greens, accentuating the beautiful furnishings of parlor, library and dining room, through which moved a bery of bolles entrancingly beautiful indeed. The receiving line was headed by the perfect hostess, who sheds her favors and bestows her attentions in true, unstinted style. Next was Miss Grundy, a remarkably handsome girl, fresh from school and with all that chic, brilliancy and grace which win her friends and draw around her society's favorites in every circle or realm. Misses Pickett, Misses January and Miss Johnson were charmingly winning in gown of loveliest hue, while the greetings and honors by them extended made the time fairly beam with gladness and good cheer. An elegant lunch was served during the hours which fitted all too fast upon this beautiful social occasion.

Mrs. William F. Hall entertained the Afternoon Euchre Club yesterday. The Hall mansion is spacious, elegant and well appointed, but with its addition of palms, chrysanthemums, roses and pinks the whole lower floor was en fête in redolent flowers, brilliant lights and gay with accompanying music, which made it more the bower amid which sylphs and Venuses might move when wooing the God of Pleasure. Eight tables were occupied by the contesting players, who spiritedly shuffled, dealt, passed and "went alone" until the last ring of the silver bell made cards vanish for refreshments. A summing-up of the score cards gave forth the following results, to whom in their order prizes were awarded: Mrs. C. C. Hopper, first prize; Mrs. C. Ed. Geisel, booby prize; Mrs. Walter S. Watson, guest's prize; all of which were very beautiful and costly. At the lunch tables refreshments were served, over which the ex-quintely-gowned women chatted for a brief season, a relaxing delight from the exciting game in which they had indulged. Mrs. Hall makes an ideal hostess, full of those gracious amenities which give true happiness to every guest and makes her home a charming dell of hospitality, joy and lingering pleasure.

Wedding Presents.

We are now on the threshold of the great wedding season. It is now that almost daily our attention is called by a dainty invitation to the fact that some of our friends are to be married. NEWS NOTES FROM NATURE'S GREAT HIGHWAY.

The Bonanza will be the Pomeroy packet tonight.

The Keystone State passed up for Pittsburgh last night.

The W. F. Nisbet will pass down from Pomeroy tonight.

The Queen City will pass down from Pittsburgh tonight.

The Henry M. Stanley passed up for Pomeroy last night.

The Alice Brown, with a big tow for the South, passed down last night.

The Will J. Cummins will return to the Cincinnati and Wheeling trade next Wednesday.

The famous whistle of the Telegraph is now on the Boston. The Boston will be the companion boat to the City of Louisville in the Cincinnati and Louisville trade until further notice. The whistle of the Telegraph has become so well known in the Louisville trade that Commodore Laidley decided at once to retain it in the trade. The famous whistle has been in constant use for nearly forty years.

The rise in the Ohio is now about all here, and it is more than probable it will be falling by Sunday morning. However, heavy and extensive rains have fallen and are still falling in the South, and the prospects are there will be a wet spell in this valley for several days. In Kansas the pools are being filled and coal towboats are making ready for a run. One thing is sure, packet water is promised all next week.

The receiving line was headed by the perfect hostess, who sheds her favors and bestows her attentions in true, unstinted style. Next was Miss Grundy, a remarkably handsome girl, fresh from school and with all that chic, brilliancy and grace which win her friends and draw around her society's favorites in every circle or realm. Misses Pickett, Misses January and Miss Johnson were charmingly winning in gown of loveliest hue, while the greetings and honors by them extended made the time fairly beam with gladness and good cheer. An elegant lunch was served during the hours which fitted all too fast upon this beautiful social occasion.

SHORT SYNOPSIS

Of the First Annual Message of President McKinley.

It will be devoted chiefly to our Foreign Relations and Currency.

The Great Bulk of the Usual Departmental Matter Will Be Ignored.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The annual reports of Indian schools show considerable progress at Carlisle, Pa., and Hampton, Va., the principal institutions.

Superintendent Pratt, of Carlisle, reports an enrollment of 700 pupils at the beginning of this fiscal year.

The post office department is taking a firm stand against the so-called "missing letter" and "missing word" contests which are being conducted by a number of publishers to increase the subscriptions to their papers.

The lottery law directs that the postmaster general, upon evidence satisfactory to himself that a concern is operating through the mails a lottery, or a scheme offering prizes dependent upon lottery chances, prohibit the delivery of all matter to it. All newspapers and periodicals containing advertisements of this character are prohibited from transmission in the mails.

This law, it is now announced at the post office department, will be applied to all schemes which are conducted in any manner to the delivery of any matter to it. All newspapers and periodicals containing advertisements of this character are prohibited from transmission in the mails.

The president Thursday appointed Judge E. Bruce Kirkpatrick, of Mississippi, to be the representative of that state in the United States senate in reconstruction days.

It is one of the most important publicans in the country. The position to which he is appointed is one he held some years ago.

The message of President McKinley will be devoted practically to the subjects of our foreign relations and the currency problem.

There is one respect, in that it ignores the great bulk of matters usually constituting the departmental portions of presidential annual messages.

There is scarcely a reference to the subject matter of the annual reports of the president, the production of which is called to attention only to the more important affairs of the government.

For this reason the postal savings plan of the president is not discussed in the message.

While the details of the currency plan are not definitely known, it is authorized that it is in the main an incorporation of the views submitted by Secretary Tugue, though as to details the president is himself free of action by not taking any action on the subject.
